THE HOUSE OF REFUGE.

The Alleged Abuses in the House of Refuge-The State Commissioners of Public Charities to Investigate Them-Card from President Strong.

The HERALD has from time to time published reports detailing the incidents connected with the management of the House of Refuge, and has suggested that a thorough inquiry be instituted by the proper authorities into its management, with a proper authorities into its management, with a view of eliciting the truth as to the alleged irregularities. The fact that an inquiry has been ordered will be a matter of congratulation to all who have been instrumental in calling attention to the House of Refuge and its management.

That such inquiry is to be made is vouched for in the following card, forwarded to the Herald yesterday:—

To the Editor of the House of Refuge have noticed the article in your issue of July 11, headed, "Pope Jones Deminion," containing a number of unjust allogations purporting to be derived from one William Kinney, a boy recently discharged from the institution. They pronounce the statements of this boy as to the alleged cruelties indicated by the statements of this boy as to the alleged cruelties indicated by the statements of the institution.
